Dear Parents and Carers,

The skill of writing is one of the most challenging skills for children to master and earlier in the week Mrs. Samuel and I visited lessons to check on the progress of pupils in this area. It was incredibly pleasing to see the responsibility and resilience of pupils when it came to the 'physical' writing process for some, but there were also high levels of engagement with learning and creative thinking throughout the school. One of the reasons for this is the broad range of stimuli being used to engage children to write ranging from The Rainbow Fish to Blue Umbrella to Macbeth. There were some real high-quality outcomes and long may that continue.

Whilst I spent time checking on writing across the school this week, there has also been time to focus on reading too with many parents attending the 'Penguin Class Reding Café' on Tuesday and it was great to see so many of you in school. Not only that, but I also know that many of you have visited the Scholastic Book Fair at some point this week and overall you have spent over £850! I would like to thank you for your support with this event, (as always), because as you know; the more you spend the more we then get to spend on books for the children in school too.

And finally, I'm sure you would have noticed that the weather has been a little hotter than normal this week but many of you have still been taking part in Walk to School Week. Again, this is something that as a school we appreciate your support with because it means the day starts with a little exercise for pupils and gets the blood pumping, plus it also reduces the number of cars on school site. Who knows, maybe if the sun continues to shine many of you will continue to walk to school for the last few weeks of term!

Have a lovely weekend and enjoy the sunshine.

Kind regards

Mr B Ellis - Head Teacher

Just a reminder that next Wednesday 22nd June at 9.00am in the School Hall we will be holding an e-safety Parent Workshop which will be led by an organisation called Openview. In addition to this, they will also be leading workshops for pupils across Key Stage 2 next week too. During the workshop for parents they will be providing guidance around a range of issues including parent controls, social media, cyber bullying and much more. Another area of focus will be online gaming and what is/isn't age appropriate for children; a helpful website that can provide more information is Young Gamers, especially the 'Parent Zone' so why not click on the following link to see for yourself.

Jubilee Care Home Celebrations

Following on from the success of our Platinum Jubilee Celebrations at school, Mrs. Djeneralovic and Mrs. Watson took a handful of pupils to Willow Gardens last Friday to share some of the work completed by pupils throughout the school. It was a wonderful opportunity for those pupils to feel part of the wider Yateley community and they enjoyed the chance to speak to the residents. However, based on the feedback from the staff at Willow Gardens, I am not sure they enjoyed it quite as much as the residents themselves who loved the chance to meet our pupils, discuss what they had been learning about and were also keen to share a story or two of their own along the way. And with a pupil led rendition of 'God Save the Queen' an enjoyable and thoughtful afternoon was had by all involved.
